

McDOUGALL & SONS SHEEP AND LAMB REPORT 30/10/19

Agents today yarded 2313 head to the market to meet a fully firm buying panel looking to stock up. The top lambs made $237 to average $142.90 a whopping $20 increase from last week, hoggets topped at $150 to average $81.02 a $27 loss compared to last week, ewes topped at $130 to average $88.05, wethers topped at $146 to average $96.53, lamb rams topped at $170 to average $126.50. The numbers were slightly larger than the previous week to see a fully firm market. The number of good trade and export types are still lacking leading to a surge in the market compared to the southern markets which experienced a fall this week. Good fresh types, suitable to the restockers and heavy mutton was fully firm.
