

McDougalls Sheep and Lamb Report 6/11/19

Agents today yarded 1733 head to the weekly market. The overall yarding was dominated with light trade and feed on stock as well as some lines of lamb and ewe units. Lambs today topped at $234 to average $152.15 up $10 on last week, hoggets topped at $305 to average $120.15 an increase of $39 on previous weeks, ewes topped at $154 to average $91.40 a $3 increase, wethers topped at $150 to average $101.78 an increase of $5 on previous weeks, lamb rams topped at $182 to average $153.42 an increase of $23. The number of good trade and export types are still lacking but the buyers are making sure their orders are as close to being filled as they can. The better trade and export types met stern buying rates today with all sectors looking to firm numbers of suitable stock which of course is in the sellers favour for the right article.
