

McDougall & Sons Pty Ltd Sheep and Lamb Report

18/3/2020

Agents today yarded 1710 head to the local market with the cancellation of the local show seeing some very handy lambs meeting the market. The yarding still had a majority of light trade lambs being offered for sale along with only 400 mutton on offer so the top end proved to be dearer for the better types on offer. Lambs topped at $255 to average $181.99($4 up on last week), hoggets topped at $191 to average $137.41($24 increase), ewes topped at $230 to average $127.51 ($25 up), wethers topped at $189 to average $129.65($7 down), ram lambs topped at $198 to average $123.89(par with last week). Local butchers informed us of the push from consumers to start getting stocks of meat to avoid closures and shutdowns due to corona virus restrictions that may come into place.
